Felicity Ng

Ways to make your projects more accessible (Presenting 10/30)

1. What is accessibility
   a. Practice of making your website more accessible
   b. Mostly thought of in terms of blind people but it shouldn't
      i. Visual impairment
      ii. Hearing impairment
      iii. Mobility impairment
      iv. Cognitive impairments
   c. Tools that help with accessibility
      i. Screen readers (default in Macs is voiceover)
      ii. Keyboard tabbing
      iii. Accessibility modes

2. How to design for accessibility
   a. Color contrast
   b. Button/Font size
   c. Moving images

3. Development for accessibility
   a. HTML helps with built in hierarchy
      i. Why you probably shouldn't use all div
      ii. Use semantic HTML!
   b. State changes need to be announced
   c. Focus during tabbing should be visible
   d. Hover considerations